A Program of UrbanPromise Wilmington

Job Openings

Position(s): UrbanPromise Wilmington- Elementary School Teacher

UrbanPromise School is seeking experienced elementary teachers who can partner with us in our mission. This person would need to have a sense of 'calling' to urban ministries. Be nurturing and caring. Some job responsibilities would include but not limited to;

- Creating and implementing lesson plans that encourage learning in both a physical and cyber classroom.
- Utilize various online platforms to deliver instruction. (i.e Zoom, Google Classroom, Class Dojo, MobyMax and others.)
- Encourage student's participation by providing interactive activities.
- Maintain open communication with parents of the child's progress through newsletters, emails and conferences.
- Participate collaboratively and professionally with other teachers and staff to promote the general well-being of the school.

Vision

The vision of the UrbanPromise Wilmington is to be a community in Christ of servant leadership and transformation seeking a full life for all involved; urban youth, families, volunteers and staff in the neighborhoods of our city.

Mission

The mission of UrbanPromise Wilmington is to equip children and through Christ with the skills necessary for academic achievement, life management, personal growth, and servant leadership.

UrbanPromise School is a private, non-profit Christian school, and a program of UrbanPromise Wilmington. As a preschool and elementary educational institution, we endeavor to develop the academic life of our students from a God-centered, holistic approach. We challenge our students intellectually, physically, socially, and spiritually. We use God's Word, the Bible, as our guide for truth. UrbanPromise School values and maintains small class sizes, with each class having no more than twelve to fifteen students.

If you are the individual we are seeking please contact us at; 302-425-5502x112 or email a cover letter and resume to Denise McMillan at Denise@urbanpromise.org.
